SCHOOL CODE OF CONDUCT

ACTIVITIES/FIELD TRIPS, SPECIAL EVENTS AND OVERNIGHT TRIPS

This conference/activity/event is an extension of the classroom. This event is a privilege and with privilege comes responsibility. Please carefully read and sign below. Both student and parent/guardian should initial each statement listed below.

The following conduct policies reflect minimum behavioral standards. The policies are in effect for all students who are attending this event. In addition to the specific conduct policies listed below, students are required to comply with any and all behavior expectations listed in the student handbook.

- No alcohol, drugs, or tobacco allowed at any time. This includes possession, distribution or use. It is the expectation that such behaviors should be reported.

  _____Parent Initial _____Student Initial

- Students are required to obey all reviewed rules, behavioral expectations, and guidelines including all student rules listed in the Student Handbook.

  _____Parent Initial _____Student Initial

- Students will conduct themselves respectfully, appropriately, and in a mature fashion at all times.

  _____Parent Initial _____Student Initial

- Any sexual misconduct or harassment will not be tolerated. Any allegations of such behavior will be investigated. It is the expectation that such behaviors should be reported.

  _____Parent Initial _____Student Initial

- Students are required to attend all meetings, scheduled events, and programs. Students are expected to arrive on time and remain with the group until the completion of the event.

  _____Parent Initial _____Student Initial

- There will be required check-in periods throughout the event. Students are expected to check-in with the assigned teacher/chaperone. Failure to check-in may result in discipline consequences as deemed appropriate.

  _____Parent Initial _____Student Initial

- Property Damage of any kind may be charged to the individuals whom are responsible.

  _____Parent Initial _____Student Initial

- Non-members or non-participants of this organization or event are allowed only as spectators during the period of the event or activity unless approved by the organizing sponsor where appropriate.

  _____Parent Initial _____Student Initial

- Students are expected to follow dress code guidelines as directed by the sponsor of the event. Any advisor or chaperone has the right to require a change of clothing if necessary.

  _____Parent Initial _____Student Initial

- On overnight trips students are not allowed to be out of their room after curfew for any reason. Curfew as set by the advisor will be strictly enforced.

  _____Parent Initial _____Student Initial

- Students of the opposite sex should only be in rooms with the door open and only for an appropriate reason (meeting, working on project, etc). Socializing should take place in common areas and outside of student rooms.

  _____Parent Initial _____Student Initial

Consequences of violations of any of the above listed behavior and conduct expectations may result in:

- Contacting parents and sending the student home, at their own expense
- Payment of damages to property
- Dismissal from the team, club, or group involved in the trip
- Suspension and/or expulsion
- Other consequences as the sponsor, Principal, and School District deems appropriate.

I have read the above conduct code and understand that these behavior expectations are put in place for each individual's safety, as well as the integrity of this particular program, the sponsoring school, and Academy School District Twenty. I further understand and have read that there may be serious consequences for violations of any of the conduct policies.

Parent/Guardian Signature_____ Student Signature_____

Printed Name_____ Printed Name _____

Date: _____ Date: _____